

The Gigantomachy #6

Gigantomachy	War with the Gigantes.
Gigantes w/ Gaia	Gaia had the Gigantes raise a rebellion to have all gods released. They were said to be half man and half serpent or lizard-like. They were dressed as soldiers – “foot soldiers” and were very aggressive and outnumbered the Olympians.
To kill a Gigante	A god w/ the aid of a hero (mortal) could kill a Gigante so Zeus asked for help from Heracles and Dionysus.
Hubris	Excessive pride A. Found in many myths B. “Pride goes before a fall” a warning to mortals and gods C. Those with too much pride or arrogance must be punished.

*Big Picture Questions: What trait(s) do Greeks view as important? Why?
What do the Greek myths teach us about power?*
